Idea: Big-brother story. The son wraps a Diwali gift for his baby cousin/sibling – it's the Step Bloom. The baby holds the handle and takes a few wobbly steps towards Mom while the son cheers. "Is Diwali, pehla kadam."
Age note: Step Bloom is for 9 months – 1.5 years, so this reel needs a baby (cousin or sibling, with parent consent). No baby available? Shoot Scenes 1–2 and the end card only (son wraps and gifts it), and use product-only shots for the walking part.
Props: Step Bloom, wrapping paper + ribbon, marigolds, LED diyas on a shelf (not on the floor), soft rug, clear floor space of ~3 m · Outfits: Mom red/cream saree or kurta, son mustard/cream kurta, baby in a soft cotton kurta

Scene 1 – The secret gift

(Son on the rug, wrapping a big box with Mom's help. Tape sound, ribbon tied.)

Mom: (whispers)

"Ye kiske liye hai?"

Son: (proud)

"Chhotu ke liye! Uska pehla Diwali gift."

📱 On screen: A big brother's Diwali gift 🎁

Scene 2 – Unwrap

(Slow-mo: son tears the paper, Step Bloom appears. Macro on wood grain, red handle and wheels.)

Son: (excited)

"Dekho chhotu, tumhari gaadi!"

📱 On screen: Wooden. Sturdy. Made for first steps.

Scene 3 – First steps (child eye-level, 60 fps)

(Baby holds the handle (Mom/parent right behind). Step Bloom rolls slowly forward, one wobbly step at a time.)

Son: (clapping, kneeling at the other end)

"Chal chhotu... aaja... aaja!"

📱 On screen: Step... by... step 👣

Scene 4 – The cheer

(Baby reaches the son; son hugs the baby, Mom claps. Fairy lights and diyas glow behind.)

Mom (voice-over):

"Is Diwali... pehla kadam."

📱 On screen: Their first steps, this Diwali 🪔

End card (3 sec)

(Red Wudly card · Step Bloom product shot · logo top-right.)

📱 On screen: Step Bloom · 9 months – 1.5 yrs · Rs. 1,899 · wudlytoys.com

Timing

Time	Scene
0–4s	Son wraps the gift – "Chhotu ke liye!"
4–7s	Unwrap + product macro
7–14s	Baby's first steps with Step Bloom
14–17s	Hug + voice-over
17–20s	End card

10-sec cut-down: unwrap (2s) → baby's steps (4s) → hug (2s) → end card (2s)

Director tips

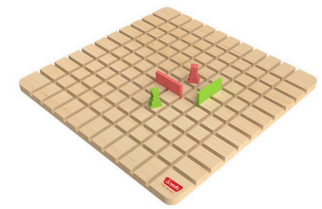

- Only on a flat floor or rug – no stairs, no diyas on the floor anywhere near the walking path.
- An adult stays right behind the baby every second; the son cheers from the front.
- Shoot the baby part when the baby is fresh (after a nap), short takes only – never force it.
- If the baby doesn't walk on cue, a few pushes with a parent holding still looks great.
- Signed parent consent for both children before filming.

Idea: Diwali game night, phones down. Each player races their pawn to the other side and drops wooden walls to block the other. Mom blocks her son ("Blocked!"), he finds a way around, blocks her back and wins. Hook: Plan. Block. Outsmart.
Age note: The game is rated 10+. If the son is younger, frame it as Mom teaching him – don't claim it's for younger kids in text or caption.
Props: Barrier Minds board, 2 pawns, wall pieces in two piles, 2 phones + basket, marigolds, LED diyas, fairy lights · Outfits: Mom red/cream saree or kurta, son mustard/cream kurta

Mom: (smiles)

"Pehle us paar toh pahuncho!"

📱 On screen: Reach the other side. Block your opponent. 🧠

Scene 3 – Blocked! (60 fps close-up)

(Son moves his pawn forward. Mom slowly slides a wall into the groove right in front of him – "tock".)

Mom:

"Blocked! 😏"

Son: (hands on head)

"Nooo!"

📱 On screen: Mom said: not today 😂

Scene 4 – Thinking face

(Face close-up: son, chin on hands, eyes scanning the board. Light tick-tock sound effect.)

📱 On screen: Plan...

(Overhead: he moves his pawn sideways, around the wall.)

📱 On screen: ...find a way...

(He places his own wall in front of Mom's pawn – "tock".)

Son:

"Ab aap blocked!"

📱 On screen: ...outsmart! 😎

Timing

Time	Scene
0–3s	Phones in the basket – "Aaj sirf hum dono"
3–6s	Board hero shot + "Aaj main jeetunga!"
6–10s	Mom drops a wall – "Blocked!" / "Nooo!"

Director tips

- Explain the rule once off-camera: move one square, or place one wall; a path can never be fully closed.
- Play a real round, but Mom leaves him an easy way round so the win happens on camera.
- "Blocked!" / "Nooo!" is the hook – do 3–4 takes, keep the funniest reaction.
- Fan/AC off for the wooden "tock"; add music only in edit.
- LED diyas only near the board; real diyas stay in the background with Mom.
- Get signed parent consent before filming.

- Lightly pencil-sketch a simple rangoli circle on the son's side beforehand if he needs a guide.
- Keep Mom's chalk rangoli simple (a diya in a circle) so the son's colourful one stands out.
